SHAWN GYLES

Ayer

The junior 5-foot-11, 180-pound tail-back-cornerback has been a major force for the Panthers, who have won 13 games the past two seasons.

This fall Gyles finished with a team-high 19 touchdowns, 116 total points and 1,299 yards rushing.

This came on the heels of a sophomore campaign which featured 8 TDs, 50 total points and 672 yards rushing.

A Central Mass. Division 3 All-Star and team MVP, Gyles also plays varsity basketball and runs track.

SHAWN GYLES

Ayer

Player of the Year

The senior running back and linebacker, a 6-foot, 190-pound three-year two-way starter, put together one of the most prolific seasons ever by a local player.

He set a new Central Mass. scoring record with 36 TDs and a pair of conversion rushes for 220 points, with the 36 TDs also eclipsing the school record of 33 set in 1980 by Larry Morris. The 220 points rank sixth all-time in Massachusetts high school football.

He scored 30 or more points in three games and closed out the season with 11 TDs in the last three games.

Gyles led the Greater Lowell area in rushing during regular-season play, piling up 1,744 yards and rushing for 200 or more three times.

Gyles, who plays basketball and is a sprinter-jumper in spring track, also led the Panthers in tackles with more than 100. The CMass. Division 3 MVP is being recruited by Northeastern, UMass and several Atlantic-10 colleges.
